Mediterranean Masterpieces
Cádiz to Nice Aboard Sea Cloud II
April 16–25, 2020
Dear Travelers and Friends,

The Spanish Riviera and Côte d’Azur are as historic as they are beautiful, dotted with venerable Roman ports and archaeological marvels dating back millennia. Join Arrangements Abroad as we sail the Mediterranean coastline from Cádiz to Nice aboard the elegant Sea Cloud II. We are delighted that Ashley E. Dunn, an assistant curator in the Department of Drawings and Prints at The Metropolitan Museum of Art, and other experts will travel with us on this extraordinary cruise.

Our journey begins in the lively ancient port city of Cádiz to admire the oldest Roman theater in Spain. Sea Cloud II will sail through the famous Pillars of Hercules to Gibraltar, where we will ascend to the top of its mighty rock. We will visit Málaga, birthplace of Picasso, and Granada, home to the exquisite UNESCO-listed Alhambra.

After a lovely day at sea, discover the majestic Old Town in Valencia. Next, call at Tarragona, a seldom-visited yet spectacular port that is the oldest Roman settlement in all of Spain. Finally, the vivid blue waters of Côte d’Azur will carry us to Marseille. Here we will view the murals and Byzantine mosaics of the 19th-century Basilica Nôtre-Dame de la Garde, in contrast to our last stop, the city’s cutting-edge Museum of Contemporary Art.

We will enjoy this relaxing and culturally stimulating trip in the company of members from The Metropolitan Museum of Art, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, and esteemed alumni from Harvard and Williams College. An optional prelude to Seville is available, and an optional postlude to Nice and the French Riviera will provide an additional opportunity to unwind and mingle with fellow travelers.

I hope you will accompany us on this fascinating sea voyage.

Sincerely,

Jim Friedlander

An optional prelude in Seville, Spain is offered from April 13–17, 2020.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16: DEPARTURE
Depart for Seville on an overnight flight.

FRIDAY, APRIL 17: SEVILLE / CáDIZ, SPAIN
Arrive today in Seville, Spain, and drive to Jerez de la Frontera for a tasting of its native sherry. Transfer to Cádiz, an ancient port city. Enjoy lunch before exploring the city’s landmarks. Start at the 16th-century Plaza de San Juan de Dios in the heart of the city, and admire the beautiful town hall and the Basilica of San Juan de Dios. Step back in time at the Roman Theatre, one of the oldest in Spain, dating from the end of the 1st century B.C. Finish at the Cathedral, which was begun in the 18th century and took over 100 years to build; its architectural styles range from Baroque to Rococo to Neoclassical, and the building is host to a beautiful, elaborately carved wooden choir stall. Transfer to Sea Cloud II and set sail for Gibraltar this evening.

SATURDAY, APRIL 18: GIBRALTAR, UNITED KINGDOM
Be on deck as Sea Cloud II approaches the legendary Rock of Gibraltar. Step ashore and transfer to the Europa Point Lighthouse for magnificent ocean views. Then make your way to the Apes’ Den to see the famous Barbary macaques, and visit the Great Siege Tunnels, a series of passageways in the northern end of the Rock. Following lunch, attend a lecture during an afternoon at sea. This evening, the captain hosts a welcome reception and dinner.

SUNDAY, APRIL 19: MÁLAGA / MOTRIL, SPAIN
In the port city of Málaga, birthplace of Picasso, enjoy an exclusive, before-hours visit to his eponymous museum. Then travel by bus to Granada to experience Spain’s masterpiece, the Alhambra Palace. After lunch, stroll through the exquisite palace courtyards, with their grand vistas, and the gardens of the Generalife, featuring water courses and fountains. Rejoin the ship in Motril in time for dinner on board.

MONDAY, APRIL 20: AT SEA
During a day at sea, discover the thrill of sailing aboard Sea Cloud II and experience the grace and romance of a bygone era of travel. Attend lectures and enjoy the amenities of our fine ship.

TUESDAY, APRIL 21: VALENCIA, SPAIN
After lunch, call at Valencia, the “City of Gold.” Discover the Old Town with its UNESCO-recognized Lonja de la Seda, a former trading center and silk exchange; the Central Market; and the spectacular 14th- to 15th-century cathedral. Admire the striking architecture of the famed City of Arts and Sciences complex designed by Valencia-born architect Santiago Calatrava. Here you may enjoy entrance to the museum complex or take a guided walking tour of the old city before returning to Sea Cloud II.
WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22: TARRAGONA, SPAIN
Arrive this afternoon in Tarragona, the oldest Roman settlement on the Iberian Peninsula. Visit the Pont del Diable, an imposing bridge that formed part of an ancient Roman aqueduct. Then take a guided visit to the Archaeological Museum, founded in the 19th century and host to the remnants of the Roman wall. We will also tour the Roman Circus, where horse and chariot races were held in the 1st century. Later, visit the Roman Amphitheatre, built in the 2nd century and remodeled in 224 A.D. Return to the ship in time for a midnight sailing.

THURSDAY, APRIL 23: DAY AT SEA
After a morning lecture, savor your last day sailing as Sea Cloud II makes her way to Côte d'Azur. Observe the crew as they practice the art of trimming the sails by hand.

FRIDAY, APRIL 24: MARSEILLE, FRANCE
Arrive this morning in the lively port city of Marseille. Tour the 19th-century Basilica Notre-Dame de la Garde and the Museum of Contemporary and Modern Art, housed in a cutting-edge building. Return to the ship for a special Marseille-inspired lunch while you enjoy an afternoon sailing along the French Riviera.

SATURDAY, APRIL 25: NICE, FRANCE / RETURN
Disembark Sea Cloud II early this morning and transfer to the airport for flights home.
